

National Preservation Month 2016

Celebrate our rich local history—along with the 100th Anniversary of Heights Libraries—through this program series co-sponsored by the Cleveland Heights Historical Society, the Cleveland Heights Landmark Commission, and Heights Libraries.

Cedar-Coventry Author Series

Wed, May 4 at 7 p.m.
Coventry Village Branch of Heights Libraries, 1925 Coventry Road

Looking Back, Looking Forward: Coventry Village Through the Decades: In this presentation from Cleveland Heights historian and author Marian Morton and photographer, city planner, and Heights resident Bob Brown, we'll explore the evolving character and potential of Coventry Village.

Porches: History, Design and Construction

Thurs, May 12 at 7 p.m.
Lee Road Branch of Heights Libraries, 2345 Lee Road

Whether your porch is Victorian or Colonial Revival, it takes a beating in our Northeast Ohio climate. We will look at common construction and deterioration issues and propose methods for repair and replacement of lost details. Additionally, you'll enjoy our look at the evolution of the American porch from humble masonry stoops to fully furnished verandahs. Presented by Colin Compton and Margaret Lann of the Cleveland Restoration Society.

Mayfield Heights Historic District Walking Tour

Sat, May 14, 10 a.m.-noonish
Tour meets at Coventry Arch in front of Coventry Village Branch of Heights Libraries, 1925 Coventry Road

Enjoy a walking tour around the City's latest district listed on the National Register of Historic Places, presented by historians Chuck Owen and Mark Souther. This is one of the City's oldest neighborhoods and home to the City's oldest school, church, and house. Rain or shine. Space is limited, registration required. Please call 216.291.4878 to register. Registration opens May 1.

History of Cleveland Heights & University Heights Libraries, Schools, and Civic Buildings

Wed, May 18 at 7 p.m.
Lee Road Branch of Heights Libraries, 2345 Lee Road

Early civic leaders saw the need to build public facilities that would serve our communities and last for generations. Celebrate the Library's centennial with a lecture—complete with historic photos, illustrating the history of our libraries, schools, and other important public buildings. Presented by Amia Wheatley, Eric Silverman, and Kara Hamley O'Donnell.

Cleveland Heights Rocks & Waters 2016: Nine Mile Creek

Sat, May 21, 10 a.m.-noonish
Tour meets at Oxford Elementary School, 939 Quilliams Road

On sidewalks and forest paths, a hiking tour presented by Roy Larick, Korbi Roberts, and Jennifer follows Quilliams Creek on its course to join Nine Mile Creek. We'll learn about the local geology, ecology, and history, and discuss how best to preserve this unique bluestone landscape. Co-sponsored by Noble Neighbors. Rain or shine. Space is limited, registration required. Please call 216.291.4878 to register. Registration opens May 1.
